

Lab 8 – Designing a Virtual Tourist Information System

Human Computer Interfacing

(BESE 14)

Note: You are required to complete/demonstrate the assigned task within the lab session.

Design a tourist information kiosk (for any national or international city). The system could be installed at the terminals of the airport, railway station with international connections or within the tourist information center.

Examples:

